At Indus Venture, we are always looking for sophisticated investors that are willing to partner with us to take calculated risk by investing in early stage post-revenue startups and SMEs that pass through our due diligence process.

We are group of mentors, investors and serial entrepreneurs from Silicon Valley, Edmonton, Austin, Lahore, Dallas and most recently from Karachi. Since 1990, our group has mentored, invested or successfully exited from several US and overseas startups and businesses with multiples while helping others for investment and growth readiness. Group founder alone has invested in two success IT businesses in Silicon Valley with over $500+ millions in revenues and ROI of 50 to 100x. We are inviting investors who could team up with us to create new capital. Our startups and businesses are willing to either relocate or open headquarters within driving distance from the investors.

We invest from low risk real estate, securities and high risk, high gain startups that have gone through our carefully designed due diligence process of preparation, planning, execution and exits
